Nursing and Allied Health Scholarship and Support Scheme (NAHSSS)

Applications for the 2012 Scholarship rounds are now open.

NAHSSS Allied Health Continuing Professional Development
Supports practicing allied health professions to attend continuing professional development activities such as short courses and conferences. Visit the Continuing Professional Development Scholarship Home Page for information on eligible professions, selection criteria, and the application process and scholarship guidelines.

NAHSSS Allied Health Postgraduate
Study at the graduate certificate, graduate diploma and masters level is eligible. There will be one PhD scholarship awarded in 2012. The Scholarship is valued at $15,000 (FTE) for a maximum of 2 years. Visit the Postgraduate Home Page for information about eligible professions, selection criteria, rural and remote status, the application process, and the scholarship guidelines.

NAHSSS Allied Health Clinical Psychology
Assisting eligible applicants gain a qualification recognised by the Australian Psychology Board as a clinical psychologist. This scholarship is limited to those who have secured candidature in an Australian Psychology Accreditation Board (APEC) course at the Masters or Professional Doctorate level in the area of Clinical Psychology. Visit the Clinical Psychology Home Page for information on eligibility, selection criteria, the application process, and the scholarship guidelines. The NAHSSS is funded by the Australian Government Department of Health and Ageing.

SARRAH encourages all Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander allied health professionals to participate in the NAHSSS and recognises the important role that Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Health Workers have in their local communities.

If you would like to talk to the Postgraduate Team about any of these scholarships please call us on 1800 338 061. Applications close on the 31 October 2011.

Kind regards

Ann, Sriyani & Jane