

Statement of Completion – ADEA/NDSS Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Health Worker, Health Practitioner Mentor Pilot Program

I, as Mentor for congratulate for completing the NDSS Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Health Worker, Health Practitioner Mentor Pilot Program.

has demonstrated, during our Mentor Relationship that they:

- Work primarily with indigenous people at risk of, or diagnosed with diabetes
- Possess the following qualifications:
 - a certificate IV in Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander Primary Health Care Practice or above,
 - a certificate IV in enrolled nursing,
 - or the equivalent for allied health professional qualifications
 - other relevant qualifications
- Demonstrate foundation knowledge and skills in:
 - anatomy and physiology
 - aetiology and pathophysiology of disease
 - biochemistry and interpretation of clinical laboratory assessments and use in case management
 - human nutrition
 - pharmacotherapy, including quality use of medicines (including traditional medicines and therapies)
 - public health and health promotion
cultural awareness and sensitivity
- Have a strong understanding of working within a team environment.
- Demonstrate awareness of how to assess an individual's health status and develop a care plan designed to support the person with diabetes to achieve and maintain health including a plan for monitoring outcomes.
- Demonstrate knowledge of the role of research and quality activities.
- Have completed a clinical placement component as part of the certificate IV qualification or allied health qualification.
- Have been/will be assessed by a manager or supervisor against the competency standards in diabetes for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Health Workers/Health Practitioners, developed by ADEA.

Further to the above requirements: